DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 30 and 35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Rizoiu et al. US Patent No. 6,350,123.

Rizoiu et al. disclose a medical apparatus for dental treatment, the apparatus comprising a handpiece, a light guide in the handpiece, and first and second laser modules having different wavelengths as presently claimed (see Fig. 1). The apparatus of Rizoiu et al. further comprises at least one lens, a cooling fluid, a coolant line, and a light delivery means such as optical fibers and hollow waveguides.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 18-34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Rizioiu et al. in view of Irwin US Patent No. 7,144,248.

Although Rizioiu et al., described above, employ at least two different lasers, they do not teach the use of a diode laser and/or an Er:YAG lasers as claimed. They further fail to teach the use of two lenses. However, the Examiner again takes a note that the use of diode and/or Er:YAG lasers to provide treatment energy is well known in the medical art. Moreover, the use of multiple lenses to direct optical energy to a desired location is also known in the art.

Irwin teaches an alternative treatment device comprising a diode laser for providing treatment energy, a delivery handpiece, and at least two lenses for directing the treatment light. Hence, at the time of the applicant's invention, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to modify Rizioiu et al. in view of Irwin and use a diode laser as an equivalent alternative light source to provide treatment energy. It would have been further obvious to one skilled in the art to use multiple lenses to direct the treatment energy.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed on September 4, 2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The applicant argues that the prior art of record fails to teach or suggest "the use of both lasers of different wavelength in a single handpiece as now claimed."

In response to this argument, neither of the independent claims 18 and 35 teaches that both of the lasers are disposed/housed in a single handpiece as argues by the applicant. Contrary, claim 25 clearly recites that "each laser module is connected to its own light guide in its own handpiece."

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
